

EXEMPTIONS

Among the schedules that you will file is a schedule of "exempt" property. The Bankruptcy Code allows an individual to protect some property from the claims of creditors because it is exempt under the laws of the State of Oregon. In Oregon the following exemptions apply to your filing:

Though not included in Oregon's statutory homestead exemption, a court has held that Oregon residents can exempt prepaid rent and security deposits for their residences. Unless otherwise noted, all law references are to the Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS).

HOMESTEAD

18.395 & 18.402 - Real property you occupy or intend to occupy to $40,000 ($50,000 if joint owners). Property may not exceed 1 block in a city or town, or 160 acres elsewhere. Sale proceeds exempt 1 year if plan to purchase another home. Prepaid rent and security deposit for renter's dwelling.
